BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF IMAM AD-DARIMI (رحمة الله عليه)

Imam Abdullah Ibn Abdur Rahman Ad-Darimi (عبد الله بن عبد الرحمن الدارمي), (797–869 CE) was a Hadith scholar from Banu Darim, whose ancestors were from Banu Tamim. SCHOLARS PRAISE

Many scholars have praised Imam Darimi, as follows.

(i) Muhammad bin Ibrahim al-Faqih As-Samarqandi said, ‘I was with Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal (d. 241 H.) and Ad-Darimi was mentioned. He said: ‘that person is a Leader. Disbelief was presented to me, and I rejected it. Worldly life was presented to him, and he rejected’.

(ii) Muhammad bin Abdullah bin Numair (d. 234 H.) said: ‘Abdullah bin Abdur Rahman surpassed us in scrupulousness and piety’.

(v) Muhammad bin Ibrahim Ash-Shirazi said: ‘Ad-Darimi was upon the utmost intellect and religion such that he was taken as an example when it comes to judgement, rulings, study of Hadith, memorization, Ibadah, and asceticism. He made the Knowledge of Hadith and narrations prominent in Samarqand and he removed lies from it. He was a complete Jurist, and a Hadith Scholar.

WORKS

Khateeb al-Baghdadi (d. 463 H.) said, Imam Ad-Darimi wrote the Musnad, a Tafseer, and a Jaami. This was also mentioned by other Scholars and Islamic researchers have concluded that the ‘Musnad and Jaami’ refer to the same book which is actually Sunan Ad-Darimi. His other works did not survive.

حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يُوسُفَ ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ ، عَنْ الْأَعْمَشِ ، عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ، قَالَ : قَالَ رَجُلٌ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أُيُؤَاخِذُ الرَّجُلُ بِمَا عَمِلَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ؟، قَالَ : " مَنْ أَحْسَنَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ لَمْ يُؤَاخِذْ بِمَا كَانَ عَمِلَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ، أَخَذَ بِالْأَوَّلِ وَالْآخِرِ "

Muhammad ibn Yusuf narrated to us, on the authority of Sufyan, on the authority of Al-A'mash, on the authority of Abu Wa'il, on the authority of Abdullah (رضي الله تعالى عنه) who said: A man said: O Apostle of Allah, will a man be held accountable for what he did in the Jahiliyyah? He said: "Whoever does good in Islam will not be held accountable for what he did in the Jahiliyyah, and whoever does evil in Islam will be held accountable for the first and the last."

أَخْبَرَنَا الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ النَّصْرِ الرَّمْلِيُّ ، عَنْ مَسْرَةَ بْنِ مَعْبُدٍ مِنْ بَنِي الْحَارِثِ بْنِ أَبِي الْحَرَامِ مِنْ لَحْمٍ ، عَنْ الْوَضِيِّ ، أَنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَقَالَ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّا كُنَّا أَهْلَ جَاهِلِيَّةٍ وَعِبَادَةَ أَوْثَانٍ، فَكُنَّا نَقْتُلُ الْأَوْلَادَ، وَكَانَتْ عِنْدِي ابْنَةٌ لِي فَلَمَّا أَجَابَتْ، وَكَانَتْ مَسْرُورَةً بِدُعَائِي إِذَا دَعَوْتُهَا، فَدَعَوْتُهَا يَوْمًا، فَاتَّبَعْتَنِي فَمَرَرْتُ حَتَّى أَتَيْتُ بِنْرًا مِنْ أَهْلِي غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ، فَأَخَذْتُ بِيَدِهَا فَرَدَّيْتُ بِهَا فِي الْبُنْرِ، وَكَانَ آخِرَ عَهْدِي بِهَا أَنْ تَقُولَ : يَا أَبَتَاهُ ! يَا أَبَتَاهُ ! فَبَكَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى وَكَفَ دَمْعُ عَيْنَيْهِ، فَقَالَ لَهُ رَجُلٌ مِنْ جُلَسَاءِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : أَخْرَنْتَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، فَقَالَ لَهُ : " كُفَّ فَإِنَّهُ يَسْأَلُ عَمَّا أَهَمَّهُ "، ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ : " أَعِدْ عَلَيَّ حَدِيثَكَ " فَأَعَادَهُ، فَبَكَى حَتَّى وَكَفَ الدَّمْعُ مِنْ عَيْنَيْهِ عَلَى لِحْيَتِهِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ : " إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ وَضَعَ عَنْ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَا عَمِلُوا، فَاسْتَأْنِفَ عَمَلَكَ "

Al-Walid ibn al-Nadr al-Ramli informed us, on the authority of Masarrah ibn Ma'bad from Banu al-Harith ibn Abi al-Haram from Lakhm, on the authority of al-Wadhin, that a man came to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and said: O Apostle of Allah, we were people of ignorance and idol worship, so we used to kill children, and I had a daughter of mine. When she responded, and she was... She was pleased with my supplication when I called her. So, I called her one day, and she followed me. I passed by until I came to a well of my family, not far away. I took her by the hand and threw her back into the well. The last thing I saw of her was that she said: O my father! O my father! The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) wept until his eyes stopped shedding tears. A man from among the companions of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) said to him: You have made the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) sad. He said to him: Stop, for he is asking about what is worrying him. Then he said to him: Repeat your story to me. So, he repeated it, and he wept until his tears stopped from his eyes and dripped onto his beard. Then he said to him: "Indeed, Allah has removed from the ignorance what they did, so resume your work."

Harun ibn Mu'awiyah informed us, on the authority of Ibrahim ibn Sulayman al-Mu'addib, on the authority of al-A'mash, on the authority of Mujahid, who said: My master told me: "His family sent with him a cup containing butter and milk to their Gods (idols). He said: So, he prevented me from eating butter for fear of them. He said: Then a dog came and ate the butter and drank the milk, then he urinated on the idol, which was Usaf." And Na'ila, Harun said: When a man traveled in the pre-Islamic era, he would carry four stones with him: three for his pot, the fourth he would worship, raise his dog, and kill his son.

To the unlettered, you are My servant and My Apostle. I have named him Al-Mutawakkil. He is not rude, nor harsh, nor loud in the markets. He does not repay evil with the like of it, but he pardons and overlooks. And I will not take him until he establishes the crooked religion by bearing witness that there is no Allah but Allah. We open through him blind eyes, deaf ears, and sealed hearts." He said: Ata' bin Yasar: Abu Waqid Al-Laythi informed me that he heard Ka'b say the same as what Ibn Salam said.

Ka'b said: "We find him Muhammad ibn Abdullah, born in Makka, and migrating to Tabah, His kingdom will be in Ash-Sham. He will not be obscene, nor will he make noise in the markets. He will not repay evil for evil but will pardon and forgive. His nation will be the praisers. They will praise Allah in every good and bad time, and they will glorify Allah in every Najd. They will wash their extremities and wear their waistbands. They will line up in their prayers as they line up in their battles. Their buzzing in their mosques is like the buzzing of bees. Their caller is heard in the sky.

أَخْبَرَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ عَلِيٍّ ، حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو أُسَامَةَ ، عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُيْمُونٍ التَّمِيمِيِّ ، عَنْ أَبِي عُثْمَانَ النَّهْدِيِّ ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ إِلَى الْبُطْحَاءِ ، وَمَعَهُ ابْنُ مَسْعُودٍ ، فَأَقْعَدَهُ وَخَطَّ عَلَيْهِ خَطًّا ، ثُمَّ قَالَ : " لَا تَبْرَحَنَّ فَإِنَّهُ سَيَنْتَهِي إِلَيْكَ رَجُلٌ فَلَا تُكَلِّمُهُمْ ، فَإِنَّهُمْ لَنْ يُكَلِّمُوكَ " ، فَمَضَى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَيْثُ أَرَادَ ، ثُمَّ جَعَلُوا يَنْتَهُونَ إِلَى الْخَطِّ لَا يُجَاوِزُونَهُ ، ثُمَّ يَصْدُرُونَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى إِذَا كَانَ مِنْ آخِرِ اللَّيْلِ ، جَاءَ إِلَى فَتَوْسَدَ فَخَذِي ، وَكَانَ إِذَا نَامَ ، نَفَخَ فِي النَّوْمِ ، نَفْخًا فَبَيْنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُتَوَسِّدٌ فَخَذِي ، رَاقِدٌ ، إِذْ أَتَانِي رَجُلٌ كَأَنَّهُمْ الْجَمَالُ عَلَيْهِمْ ثِيَابٌ بَيْضٌ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ مَا بِهِمْ مِنَ الْجَمَالِ حَتَّى قَعَدَ طَائِفَةٌ

مِنْهُمْ عِنْدَ رَأْسِهِ، وَطَائِفَةٌ مِنْهُمْ عِنْدَ رِجْلَيْهِ، فَقَالُوا بَيْنَهُمْ : مَا رَأَيْنَا عَبْدًا أُوتِيَ مِثْلَ مَا أُوتِيَ هَذَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : إِنَّ عَيْنَيْهِ لَتَنَامَانِ، وَإِنْ قَلْبُهُ لَيَفْطَانُ، اضْرِبُوا لَهُ مَثَلًا : سَيِّدُ بَنِي قَصْرًا ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مَادِيَةً فَدَعَا النَّاسَ إِلَى طَعَامِهِ وَشَرَابِهِ، ثُمَّ ارْتَفَعُوا، وَاسْتَيْقَظَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَ ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ : " أَتَدْرِي مَنْ هُوَ لَآءِ؟ "، قُلْتُ : اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَعْلَمُ، قَالَ : " هُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ "، قَالَ : " وَهَلْ تَدْرِي مَا الْمَثَلُ الَّذِي ضَرَبُوهُ؟ "، قُلْتُ : اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَعْلَمُ، قَالَ : " الرَّحْمَنُ بَنَى الْجَنَّةَ فَدَعَا إِلَيْهَا عِبَادَهُ، فَمَنْ أَجَابَهُ، دَخَلَ جَنَّتَهُ، وَمَنْ لَمْ يُجِبْهُ، عَاقَبَهُ وَعَذَّبَهُ ".

Al-Hasan bin Ali (رضي الله تعالى عنه) informed us, Abu Usamah told us, on the authority of Ja'far bin Maymun al-Tamimi, on the authority of Abu Uthman al-Nahdi, that the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) went out to al-Batha', and with him was Ibn Mas'ud (رضي الله تعالى عنه). He made him sit down and drew a line over him, then he said: "Do not move, for men will come to you, so do not speak to them, for they will not speak to you." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) went wherever he wanted, then they would reach the line and not go beyond it, then they would return to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) until at the end of the night he came to me and rested his head on my thigh, and when he slept, he would blow in his sleep, blowing. While the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was resting his head on my thigh, sleeping, someone came to me. Men like camels, wearing white garments. Allah knows best what beauty they have. A group of them sat at his head and a group at his feet. They said among themselves: We have never seen a servant who has been given what this Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) has been given. His eyes are sleeping, and his heart is awake. Give him an example: a master. He built a palace, then held a banquet and invited the people to his food and drink. Then they went up, and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) woke up at that time and said: "Do you know who these are?" I said: "Allah and His Apostle (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) know best." He said: "They are the angels." He said: "Do you know what the example they gave is?" I said: Allah and His Apostle (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) know best." He said: "The Most Gracious built Paradise and called His servants to it. Whoever answered Him, He entered His Paradise, and whoever did not answer Him, He punished and tormented him."

Nu'aym ibn Hammad informed us, Baqiyah told us, on the authority of Baheer, on the authority of Khalid ibn Ma'dan, on the authority of 'Abd al-Rahman ibn 'Amr al-Sulami, on the authority of `Utba ibn `Abd al-Sulami, that he told them, and he was one of the companions of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم): A man said to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم): How did your affair begin, O Apostle of Allah? He said: "My foster mother was from Banu Sa'd ibn Bakr. I and her son set out with our cattle, and we did not take any provisions with us. I said: 'O my brother, go and bring us provisions from our mother.' So, my brother set out and I stayed with the cattle. Then two white birds came, looking like eagles. One of them said to his companion: 'Is it him?' The other said: 'He is the one.' Yes, so they came running towards me, and they seized me, and they laid me on my back, and they split open my belly, and they took out my heart, and they split it open, and they took out from it two black clots. One of them said to his companion: Bring me some icy water, and he washed my insides with it. Then he said: Bring me some cold water, and he washed my heart with it. Then he said: Bring me a knife and put it in my heart. Then one of them said to his companion: "Put him on a scale and put a thousand of his nation on the other scale." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "When I look at the thousand above me, I fear that some of them will fall on me." He said: "If his nation were weighed against him, it would lean toward him." "With them, then they went away and left me." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "I was very afraid, then I went to my mother and told her what I had encountered. She was afraid that something bad might have happened to me, so she said: I seek refuge in Allah from you. So, she saddled a camel of hers, put me on the saddle, and rode behind me until we reached my mother. She said: I have fulfilled my trust." And my conscience, and I told her what I had encountered, but that did not frighten her, and she said: When something came out of me, I saw, meaning: a light from which the palaces of Ash-Sham were illuminated.

He said: "O Abu Dharr, two angels came to me while I was in some of the plains of Makka, and one of them fell on the earth, and the other was between the sky and the earth, so one of them said to his companion: Is it him? He said: Yes. He said: Weigh him with a man, so I was weighed with him and weighed him. Then he said: Weigh him with ten, so I was weighed with them and outweighed them. Then he said: Weigh him with a hundred, so I weighed with them and outweighed them. Then he said: Weigh him with a thousand, so I weighed with them and outweighed them. It is as if I see them falling on me because of the lightness of the scale. He said: Then one of them said to his companion: If you weighed him with his nation, he would outweigh them.

When he came close to him, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to him: "Where are you going?" He said: "To my family." He said: "Would you like "Good?" He said: "What is it?" He said: "You testify that there is no Allah but Allah alone, with no partner, and that Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) is His servant and Apostle." He said: "And who will testify to what you say?" He said: "This is As-Salama." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) called her while she was on the bank of the valley, and she came forward, scratching the ground, until she stood before him. He called her to witness three times. She testified three times that it was as he said, then she returned to her place of origin, and the Bedouin returned to his people and said: If they follow me, I will bring them to you, and if not, I will return and be with you.

أَخْبَرَنَا غُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُوسَى ، عَنْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ ، عَنْ أَبِي الرَّبِيعِ ، عَنْ جَابِرِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ، قَالَ : خَرَجْتُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ، وَكَانَ لَا يَأْتِي الْبَرَارَ حَتَّى يَتَغَيَّبَ فَلَا يُرَى، فَتَرَلْنَا بِقَلَاةٍ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ لَيْسَ فِيهَا شَجَرَةٌ، وَلَا عِلْمٌ، فَقَالَ : " يَا جَابِرُ، اجْعَلْ فِي إِدَاوَتِكَ مَاءً ثُمَّ انْطَلِقْ بِنَا " ، قَالَ : فَأَنْطَلَقْنَا حَتَّى لَا نَرَى، فَإِذَا هُوَ بِشَجَرَتَيْنِ بَيْنَهُمَا أَرْبَعُ أَذْرُعَ ، فَقَالَ : " يَا الْحَقِّي بِصَاحِبَتِكَ حَتَّى أَجْلِسَ خَلْفُكُمَا " ، فَارْجَعْتُ إِلَيْهَا، فَجَلَسَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ بَيْنَنَا كَأَنَّمَا عَلَيْنَا الطَّيْرُ تُظَلِّئَانَا، فَعَرَضَتْ لَهُ امْرَأَةٌ مَعَهَا صَبِيٌّ لَهَا، فَقَالَتْ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّ ابْنِي هَذَا يَأْخُذُهُ الشَّيْطَانُ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ ثَلَاثَ مَرَارٍ، قَالَ : فَتَنَاوَلِ الصَّبِيَّ فَجَعَلَهُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ مَقْدَمِ الرَّحْلِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ : " اخْسَأْ عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ، أَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، اخْسَأْ عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ أَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثًا " ، ثُمَّ دَفَعَهُ إِلَيْهَا، فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا سَفَرَنَا، مَرَرْنَا بِذَلِكَ الْمَكَانِ فَعَرَضَتْ لَنَا الْمَرْأَةُ مَعَهَا صَبِيَّهَا، وَمَعَهَا كَبْشَانِ تَسُوقُهُمَا، فَقَالَتْ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ أَقْبِلْ مِنِّي هَدِيَّتِي، فَوَالَّذِي بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ مَا عَادَ إِلَيْهِ بَعْدُ، فَقَالَ : " خُذُوا مِنْهَا وَاجِدًا وَرُدُّوا

عَلَيْهَا الْآخَرُ "، قَالَ : ثُمَّ سِرْنَا وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَنَا كَأَنَّمَا عَلَيْنَا الطَّيْرُ تُظِلُّنَا، فَإِذَا جَمَلٌ نَادَى حَتَّى إِذَا كَانَ بَيْنَ سِمَاطَيْنِ خَرَّ سَاجِدًا، فَجَلَسَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ، وَقَالَ عَلَى النَّاسِ : " مَنْ صَاحِبُ الْجَمَلِ؟ " فَإِذَا فُتِيَتْهُ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ، قَالُوا : هُوَ لَنَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، قَالَ : " فَمَا شَأْنُهُ؟ "، قَالُوا : اسْتَنْبَيْنَا عَلَيْهِ مُنْذُ عِشْرِينَ سَنَةً وَكَانَتْ بِهِ شَحِيمَةٌ فَأَرَدْنَا أَنْ نَنْحَرَهُ فَقَفِصِمُهُ بَيْنَ غُلْمَانِنَا، فَأَنْقَلَتْ مَيِّتًا، قَالَ : " بَبِغُونِيهِ "، قَالُوا : لَا، بَلْ هُوَ لَكَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، قَالَ : " أَمَا لَا، فَأَحْسِنُوا إِلَيْهِ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَهُ أَجَلُهُ "، قَالَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عِنْدَ ذَلِكَ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، نَحْنُ أَحَقُّ بِالسُّجُودِ لَكَ مِنَ الْبَهَائِمِ، قَالَ : " لَا يَنْبَغِي لِشَيْءٍ أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِشَيْءٍ وَلَوْ كَانَ ذَلِكَ، كَانَ النِّسَاءُ لِأَرْوَاجِهِنَّ "

Ubaydullah bin Musa informed us, on the authority of Ismail bin Abdul Malik, on the authority of Abu Al-Zubayr, on the authority of Jabir (رضي الله تعالى عنه) who said: I went out with the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) on a journey, and he would not relieve himself until he was hidden and not seen. We stopped in a deserted area of land in which there were no trees or landmarks. He said: "O Jabir, put water in your vessel, then..." "Let us go," he said. "So, we went until we could not be seen. Then he came to two trees, between which there were four cubits. He said: 'O Jabir, go to this tree and say: 'The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) says to you: 'Catch up with your companion so that I may sit behind you.' So, she returned to it, and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) sat behind them. Then they returned to their place. So, we rode with the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم), and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was between us, as if birds were shading us. Then a woman with her child came to him and said: O Apostle of Allah, this son of mine is seized by the devil three times every day. He said: So, he took the child and put him between him and the front of the saddle, then he said: "Get lost, enemy of Allah. I am..." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "Get lost, enemy of Allah! I am the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم)." He then handed him over to her. When we had finished our journey, we passed by that place and the woman came to us with her child and two rams that she was herding. She said: "O Apostle of Allah, accept my gift from me, for by the One Who sent you with the truth, it has not returned to him." Then he said: "Take one of them and return the other to her." He said: Then we walked and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was among us as if birds were shading us. Then a camel called out until it was between two rows and fell down in prostration. The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) sat down and said to the people: "Who is the owner of the camel?" "Then some young men from the Ansar came and said: 'It is ours, O Apostle of Allah.' He said: 'What is the matter with it?' They said: 'We have been waiting for it for twenty years and it had some fat on it, so we wanted to slaughter it and divide it among our young men, but it escaped from us.' He said: 'Sell it to me.' They said: 'No, it is yours, O Apostle of Allah.' He said: 'But if not, then treat it well until His time comes.' The Muslims then said: "O Apostle of Allah, we are more deserving of prostration to you than the animals." He said: "It is not appropriate for anything to prostrate to anything, even if that were the case, women would be to their husbands."

They mentioned that to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) so he came to it. So, he called him, and he came, placing his cloak on the ground until he knelt down in front of him. Then he said, "Bring me a halter." So, he put the halter on him and gave him to his companion. Then he turned and said, "There is no one between the heaven and the earth who does not know that I am the Apostle of Allah, except the disobedient jinn and mankind."

Then the time for prayer came, so the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "Is there any purification water among the people?" Then a man came running, carrying a vessel containing some water, and there was no other water among the people. "The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) poured it into a cup, then performed ablution and performed it well, then he left and left the cup." The people got on that cup and said: "Wipe yourselves, wipe yourselves." So, I told Salim bin Abi al-Ja'd about it, and he said: They were fifteen hundred people.

Muhammad ibn Humayd informed us, Tamim ibn Abd al-Mu'min informed us, Salih ibn Hayyan informed us, Ibn Buraydah informed me, on the authority of his father, who said: When the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) delivered a sermon, he would stand up and prolong his standing, and it was difficult for him to stand. So, a palm trunk was brought, dug for it, and it was made to stand beside it for the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). Whenever the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) delivered a sermon and stood for a long time on it, he would lean on it. A man who had come to Madinah saw him standing next to that trunk, so he said to the people next to him: If I knew that Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) would praise me for something that would be kind to him, I would make a place for him to sit on. If he wishes, He sat as long as he wanted, and if he wanted, he could stand. News of that reached the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) so he said: "Bring him to me." So, they brought him to him, and he ordered him to make for him these three steps, or the four that are now on the pulpit of Madinah. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) found comfort in that. So, when the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) left the trunk and went to this one, which was made for him. The trunk swayed and moaned like a she-camel when the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) left it. Ibn Buraydah said, on the authority of his father, that when the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) heard the moaning of the trunk, he returned to it, placed his hand on it, and said: "Choose that I plant you in the place where you were, so that you will be as you were, and if you wish, I will plant you in Paradise." So, you drink from its rivers and springs, and your plant grows well, and it bears fruit, and the friends of Allah eat from your fruit and your palm trees. He said that he heard the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say to him: "Yes, I did it twice." The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was asked, and he said: "He chose that I plant it in Paradise."

Zakariya ibn Adi informed us, on the authority of Ubayd Allah ibn Amr, on the authority of Abdullah ibn Muhammad ibn Aqil, on the authority of Tufail ibn Ubayy ibn Ka'b, on the authority of his father, who said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) used to pray facing a tree trunk and deliver the sermon towards it when the mosque was like a hut. A man from among his companions said to him: Shall we not make a pulpit for you so that you can stand? On it the people see you on Friday and hear your sermon? He said: "Yes." So, the three steps were made for him, which are the ones on the pulpit. When the pulpit was made and placed in the place where the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) had placed it, he said: When the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) came wanting the pulpit, he passed by it, and when he passed it, he fell down. The trunk was broken and split, so the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) returned to it and wiped it with his hand until it calmed down, then he returned to the pulpit. He said: Whenever he prayed, he prayed towards it. When the mosque was reconstructed, Ubayy ibn Ka'b (رضى الله تعالى عنه) took that trunk and it remained with it until it decayed and was eaten by termites and became dust.

Abdullah bin Saeed narrated to us, Abu Usamah narrated to us, on the authority of Mujalid, on the authority of Abu al-Wadak, on the authority of Abu Saeed (رضى الله تعالى عنه) who said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was delivering a sermon while leaning on a tree trunk. A Roman man came to him and said: Shall I make you a pulpit from which you can deliver the sermon? So, he made for him this pulpit which you see. He said: When he stood on it, the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) was delivering a sermon. The trunk yearned like a she-camel yearns for her young. The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) came down to it, hugged it close to him and it calmed down. Then he ordered that a grave be dug for it and that it be buried.

Muslim ibn Ibrahim told us, Al-Sa`q told us, he said: I heard Al-Hasan say: When the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) arrived in Madinah, he would lean his back against a piece of wood and talk to the people. They gathered around him in large numbers, so the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) wanted to make them hear him, so he said: "Build something for me to stand on." They said: "How, O Prophet of Allah? He said: "A trellis like the trellis of Musa (عليه السلام)." When they built it for him, Al-Hasan said: "By Allah, the wood moaned." Al-Hasan said: "Glory be to Allah! Are the hearts of people who listen, sought?" Abu Muhammad said: "He means this."

Muhammad ibn Ahmad ibn Abi Khalaf informed us, Umar ibn Yunus informed us, Ikrimah ibn Ammar informed us, Ishaq ibn Abi Talhah informed us, Anas ibn Malik (رضي الله تعالى عنه) informed us that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) used to stand on Friday, lean his back against a tree trunk erected in the mosque and deliver a sermon to the people. Then a man came to him. Roman, he said: Shall I not make you something for you to sit on as if you were standing? So, he made a pulpit for him with two steps, and he would sit on the third. When the Prophet of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) sat on that pulpit, the trunk of the tree moaned like the mooing of a bull until the mosque shook with grief. So the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) came down from the pulpit to him, and he embraced him while he was moaning. When the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) embraced him, Allah's Apostle (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) calmed down, then said: "By Him in whose hand is the soul of Muhammad, if I had not stuck to him, he would have remained like this until the Day of Resurrection, grieving for the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم)." So, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) ordered him to be buried.

Abdullah bin Omar bin Abaan informed us, Abdul Rahman bin Muhammad Al-Muharibi told us, on the authority of Abdul Wahid bin Ayman Al-Makki, on the authority of his father, who said: I said to Jaber bin Abdullah (رضي الله تعالى عنه) tell me about a hadith from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) that you heard from him and that I may narrate from you. Jaber (رضي الله تعالى عنه) said: We were with the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) on the day of the Battle of the Trench, we were digging it. We remained for three days without eating food, nor were we able to do so. Then a mound appeared in the trench, so I came to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم), and said: O Apostle of Allah, this is a mound that has appeared in the trench, so we sprinkled water on it. Then the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) stood up. He took the pickaxe, or the spade, then he mentioned the name of Allah three times, then he struck it and it became a pile of sand. When I saw that from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) I said: O Apostle of Allah, give me permission. He said: So, he gave me permission, so I came to my wife and said: May your mother be bereaved of you, I have seen from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) something that I cannot bear. On it, do you have anything? She said: I have a Saa of barley and a young goat. He said: We ground the barley, slaughtered the young goats, skinned them, put them in the pot and kneaded the barley. He said: Then he said: I went back to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and stayed for an hour, then I asked his permission a second time and he gave me permission, so I came, and the dough had become ready. So, I ordered her to bake bread and put the pot on the stove. Abu Abd al-Rahman said: It is the stove, but like this. He said: Then I came to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and said: We have food for us, so if you see fit to stand with me, you and a man or two men with you, he said: "And how much is it?" "I said: A Sa' of barley and a young goat. He said: 'Go back to your family and tell her not to remove the pot from the fireplace and not to take the bread out of the oven until I come.' Then he said to the people: 'Go to Jabir's (رضي الله تعالى عنه) house.' I felt shy with a shyness that only Allah knows, so I said to my wife: 'May your mother be bereaved of you, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) has come to you. He (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to all his companions: Did the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) ask you: How much is the food? I said: Yes. She said: Allah and His Apostle know best. I have informed him of what we had. He said: So, some of what I had felt went away, and I said: You have spoken the truth. Then the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) came and entered, then he said to his companions: "No. They pressed themselves together, then he knelt on the oven and on the pot. He said: So, we took bread from the oven and took meat from the pot, and we mixed it and scooped it for them. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "Let seven or eight sit on the plate." When they had eaten, we would uncover the oven and uncover the pot, and there they were. We continued to do that every time we opened the oven and uncovered the pot, we found them fuller than they had been until all the Muslims were full, and there was some food left. Then the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to us: "The people have been afflicted with famine, so eat and feed others." So, we continued to eat that day. And we feed. He said: And he informed me that they were eight hundred, or he said: three hundred. Ayman said: I do not know which of them he said.

He said: "No problem, go." He said: So, he set out and the people set out. He said: So, the food was brought, "So he placed the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) put his hand on it and said Bismillah over it, then he said: "Give permission to ten." He said: So, he gave them permission and said: "Eat in the name of Allah." So, they ate until they were full, then they stood up. "Then he put his hand on it as he had done the first time and said Bismillah over it." Then he said: "Give permission to ten." So, he gave them permission and said: "Eat, in the name of Allah." So, they ate until They were full, then they stood up until he did that with eighty men. He said: "The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and the people of the house ate and left some leftovers."

أَخْبَرَنَا مُسْلِمُ بْنُ أَبِرَاهِيمَ ، حَدَّثَنَا أَبَانُ هُوَ الْعَطَّارُ ، حَدَّثَنَا قَتَادَةُ ، عَنْ شَهْرِ بْنِ حَوْشَبٍ ، عَنْ أَبِي عُبَيْدٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ ، أَنَّهُ طَبَخَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قِدْرًا ، فَقَالَ لَهُ : " نَاوِلْنِي الذِّرَاعَ " ، وَكَانَ يُعْجِبُهُ الذِّرَاعُ ، فَنَاوَلَهُ الذِّرَاعَ ، ثُمَّ قَالَ : " نَاوِلْنِي الذِّرَاعَ " ، فَنَاوَلَهُ ذِرَاعًا ، ثُمَّ قَالَ : " نَاوِلْنِي الذِّرَاعَ " ، فَقُلْتُ : يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ ، وَكَمْ لِلشَّاةِ مِنْ ذِرَاعٍ؟ فَقَالَ : " وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ أَن لَوْ سَكَتَ لَأَعْطَيْتَ أَذْرُعًا مَا دَعَوْتُ بِهِ "

Muslim ibn Ibrahim informed us, Aban - he is Al-Attar - told us, Qatada told us, on the authority of Shahr ibn Hawshab, on the authority of Abu Ubayd (رضي الله تعالى عنه) that he cooked a pot for the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and he said to him: "Give me the forearm," and he liked the forearm, so he gave him the forearm, then he said: "Give me the forearm," so he gave him a forearm, then he said: "Give me the forearm." The arm," so I said: "O Prophet of Allah, how many arms does a sheep have?" He said: "By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, if you had kept quiet, you would have been given as many arms as I have asked for."

Abu al-Nu'man informed us, Abu 'Awanah told us, on the authority of al-Aswad, on the authority of Nubayh al-'Anazi, on the authority of Jabir ibn 'Abdullah (رضي الله تعالى عنه), who said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) went out to the polytheists to fight them, and Abu 'Abdullah said: O Jabir, it does not matter to you that you are in the presence of the people of Madina until you know what will happen to our situation, for I... By Allah, if I had not left daughters after me, I would have loved for her to be killed before me. He said: While I was in the audience, my aunt brought my father and my uncle to bury them in our graveyard. A man came calling out, "The Prophet (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) commands you to return the dead and bury them in their beds where they were killed." So we returned them and buried them in their resting place where they were killed: While I was in the caliphate of Muawiyah ibn Abi Sufyan (رضي الله تعالى عنه) a man came to me and said: O Jabir ibn Abdullah, your father's body was stirred up by the workers of Muawiyah, so he appeared, and a group of them went out, so I went to him and found him in the same position in which I had buried him, nothing had changed except what had not left the dead man. He said: So I hid him, and my father left him a debt of dates, and some of his creditors became very angry with me in the litigation, so I came to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) and said: O Apostle of Allah, my father was afflicted on such and such a day, and he left him a debt of dates, and some of his creditors became very angry with me in the pursuit, so I would like you to help me with him, perhaps he will give me a reprieve from some of the He said: "Yes, I will come to you, Allah willing, near the middle of the day." He said: So, he came with his companions. He said: They sat in the shade and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) greeted us and asked permission, then he entered upon us. He said: I said to my wife: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) came to me today in the middle of the day, so do not he saw you and did not harm the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) in my house with anything and did not speak to him. So, she spread out a bed and a pillow and he put his head down and slept. Then I said to my slave: Slaughter this young goat, which is tame and fat, and the ox and the calf, and finish them before the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) wakes up and I am with you. So, we did not go down in it until we finished it, and he was asleep, so I said: When the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) wakes up, he calls for purification, and I fear that when he finishes, he will get up and not finish his purification until the neck is placed in front of him. So, when he woke up, he said: "O

Jabir, bring me purification.” He said: “Yes.” So, he did not finish his ablution until the neck of the goat was placed in front of him. He said: He looked at me and said: “It seems that you know our love for meat. Call Abu Bakr (رضي الله تعالى عنه).” Then he called his companions. The food was brought and placed. He put his hand on it and said: “In the name of Allah, eat.” So, they ate until they were full and there was a lot of meat left over. He said: “By Allah, the assembly of Banu Salamah, when they look at them, is more beloved to them than their eyes, they did not come near him for fear that they would harm him, then he stood up, and his companions stood up, and they went out in front of him, and he was saying: “Leave my back to the angels.” He said: So, I followed them until I reached the roof of the door, and my wife stuck out her chest and she was covered, and she said: O Apostle of Allah, send blessings upon me and upon my husband. He said: “May Allah send blessings upon you and upon your husband.” Then he said: “Call so-and-so for me for the debtor who has been very strict with me in demanding it.” Anas said: “Make Jabir pay a portion of your father’s debt until this coming debt.” He said: “I will not do that.” He said: “And he became ill and said: ‘It is only the property of orphans.’” The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: “Where is Jabir?” He said: I said: I am the one, O Apostle of Allah. He said: “Eat it for him, for Allah the Most High will repay him.” So, he raised his head to the sky, and behold, the sun had set. He said: “The prayer, O Abu Bakr (رضي الله تعالى عنه).” So, they rushed to the mosque, and I said to my creditor: “Bring your vessels near.” So, I measured out for him some ajwa dates, and Allah repaid him and left us with such, and such dates left over. He said: So I came running to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) in his mosque as if I were a spark, and I found the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) praying, so I said: O Apostle of Allah, I have measured out my creditor's dates, and Allah has paid him back and left us with such and such dates left over. So, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "Where is 'Umar ibn al-Khattab (رضي الله تعالى عنه)?" He said: So, he came running. He said: Ask Jabir bin Abdullah (رضي الله تعالى عنه) about his debtor.

Ishaq ibn Ibrahim informed us, Yazid ibn Abi Hakim informed us, Al-Hakam ibn Abaan informed me, on the authority of Ikrimah, on the authority of Ibn Abbas (رضي الله تعالى عنه) who said: “Allah preferred Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) over the prophets (عليهم السلام) and over the people of heaven. They said: O Ibn Abbas (رضي الله تعالى عنه) how did He prefer him over the people of heaven? He said: Allah said: To the people of heaven. And whoever among them says, “I am a Allah besides Him,” We will recompense him with Hell. Thus, do We recompense the wrongdoers. Surah Al-Anbiya, verse 29. And Allah Almighty said to Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم): “Indeed, We have granted you a clear conquest, so that Allah may forgive you what preceded of your sin and what will come after.” Surah Al-Fath, verses 1-2. They said: What is his superiority over the prophets, peace be upon them? He said: Allah said: “And We did not send any Apostle except with the language of his people to make things clear to them.” Surah Ibrahim, verse 4. And Allah said to Muhammad (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم): “And We have not sent you except as mercy to mankind.” Surah Saba, verse 28. So, Allah sent him to the jinn and mankind.

He went out and when he came close to them, he heard them talking, so he listened to their conversation. Then some of them said: It is strange that Allah has taken from among His creation a friend, so Ibrahim (عليه السلام) is His friend. Another said: What is more amazing then: “And Allah spoke to Musa (عليه السلام) directly” Surah An-Nisa, verse 164. Another said: “So Isa (عليه السلام) is the Word of Allah and His Spirit.” Another said: “And Allah chose Adam (عليه السلام), so Prophet (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) went out to them and greeted them and said: ‘I have heard your speech and your astonishment. Indeed, Ibrahim (عليه السلام) is the friend of Allah, and so he is, and Musa (عليه السلام) is the Savior, and so he is, and Isa (عليه السلام) His spirit and His word, and so is he, and Adam (عليه السلام) was chosen by Allah the Most High, and so is he. Beware, I am the beloved of Allah, and that is no boasting, and I am the bearer of the banner of praise on the Day of Resurrection, and that is no boasting, and I am the first intercessor, and the first whose intercession is accepted on the Day of Resurrection, and that is no boasting, and I am the first to stir the rings of Paradise, and that is no boasting, and Allah opens them and admits me into it, and with me are the poor. The believers, and I am not boasting. I am the most honorable of the first and the last in the sight of Allah, and I am not boasting.

A thousand servants will circulate around Me as if they were hidden eggs or scattered pearls.

Abdullah ibn Salih informed us, Al-Layth told me, Yazid told me - he is Ibn Abdullah ibn Al-Haad - on the authority of Amr ibn Abi Amr, on the authority of Anas ibn Malik (رضي الله تعالى عنه) , who said: I heard the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say: "I will be the first of the people on the Day of Resurrection when the earth will split open, revealing myself, and that is no boasting. I will be given the banner of praise, and that is not boasting." I am proud, and I am the master of mankind on the Day of Resurrection, and I am not boasting. I am the first to enter Paradise on the Day of Resurrection, and I am not boasting. I will come to the gate of Paradise and take hold of its ring, and they will say: Who is this? I will say: I am Muhammad, and they will open it for me, and I will enter and find the Almighty facing me, so I will prostrate to Him, and He will say: Raise your head, O Muhammad, and speak, and I will be heard. From You, and say, it will be accepted from You and intercede, and your intercession will be accepted. So, I will raise my head and say, "My nation, my nation, O Lord." He will say, "Go to Your nation, and whoever You find in whose heart faith equal to the weight of a grain of barley, admit him into Paradise." So, I will go, and whoever I find in whose heart faith equal to that weight, I will admit them into Paradise. Then I will find the Almighty facing me, so I will prostrate. To him, and he says: Raise your head, O Muhammad, and speak, and it will be heard from you, and say: It will be accepted from you, and intercede, and your intercession will be accepted. So, I raise my head and say: My nation, my nation, O Lord. So, he says: Go to your nation, and whoever you find in his heart the weight of a mustard seed of faith, admit him into Paradise. So I go, and whoever I find in his heart the weight of that I will admit them into Paradise, and the reckoning of the people will be completed, and whoever remains of my nation will be admitted into the Fire with the people of the Fire. Then the people of the Fire will say, "What benefit did it avail you that you used to worship Allah and did not associate anything with Him?” Then the Almighty will say, “By My might, I will surely free them from the Fire.” Then He will send for them, and they will emerge from the Fire having been humiliated. Then they will be brought into the River of Life and will grow in it as a seed grows in the scum of a torrent. And it will be written before their eyes, “These are the freed ones of Allah.” Then they will be taken away and will enter Paradise. Then the people of Paradise will say to them, “These are the people of Hell.” Then the Almighty will say, “Rather, these are the freed ones of the Almighty.”

Abdullah bin Salih informed us, Muawiyah told me, on the authority of Yunus bin Maysarah, on the authority of Abu Idris Al-Khawlani, on the authority of Ibn Ghanam, who said: “Jibreel (عليه السلام) descended upon the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and split open his stomach. Then Jibreel said: A submissive heart in which there are two hearing ears and two seeing eyes. Muhammad is the Apostle of Allah, the follower, the gatherer.” Your character is good, your tongue is truthful, and your soul is at peace.” Abu Muhammad said: Waki (وَكِيعٌ) means severe.

Abdullah bin Salih informed us, Muawiyah told me, on the authority of Urwah ibn Ruwaym, on the authority of Amr ibn Qays, that the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: “Allah has granted me the appointed time and has shortened it for me, so we are the last, and we are the first on the Day of Resurrection. I will say something without boasting: Ibrahim (عليه السلام) is the friend of Allah.” Musa (عليه السلام) is the Chosen One of Allah, and I am the Beloved of Allah, and with me is the Banner of Praise on the Day of Resurrection. Allah, the Exalted, has promised me concerning my nation and has protected them from three things: that no famine will afflict them, that no enemy will eradicate them, and that He will not unite them in misguidance.

He said: "Yes, I was brought food." He said: "O Prophet of Allah, was there any surplus in it?" He said: "Yes." He said: "Then what was done with it?" He said: "It was taken up to the sky, and it was revealed to me that I would not remain among you except for a little while, then you would remain until you would say: When, when? Then the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them: "Raise your hands (do not eat)." The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) sent for the Jewish woman and called her. He said to her: "Did you poison this sheep?" She said: "Yes. And who told you?" The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "This one told me that it was in my hand: for the arm." She said: "Yes." He said: "Then what?" Did you mean that?" She said: "I said: If he was a prophet, it would not harm him, and if he was not a prophet, we would be relieved of him." So, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) forgave her and did not punish her. Some of his companions who had eaten from the sheep died, and the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) had his shoulder cupped because of the one who had eaten from the sheep. Abdullah ibn Salih informed us, Al-Layth told me, Saeed ibn Abi Saeed Al-Maqburi told me, on the authority of Abu Hurairah (رضي الله تعالى عنه), who said: When Khaybar was conquered, a poisoned sheep was presented to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "Gather for me whoever is here from the Jews." So, they were gathered for him, and he said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them: "I am going to ask you about something. Will you tell me the truth?" They said: "Yes, O Abu al-Qasim." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them: "Who is your father?" They said: "Our father is so-and-so." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: "You have lied. Rather, your father is so-and-so." They said: "You have spoken the truth and have acted righteously." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them: "Will you tell me the truth if I ask you about something?" They said, "Yes, and if we lie to you, you will know our lying just as you knew it in our fathers." Then the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them, "Who are the people of Hell?" "They said: We will be in it for a short while, then you will replace us in it." The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said to them: "Be gone in it, for by Allah, we will never replace you in it." Then he said to them: "Will you tell me the truth if I ask you about something?" They said: "Yes." He said: "Did you put poison in this sheep?" They said: Yes. He said: What made you do that? They said: If you are a liar, we want to get rid of you, and if you are a prophet, it will not harm you.

Ummul Momineen Hafsa (رضى الله تعالى عنها), and we poured water over him, or we poured water over him. The doubt is on the part of Muhammad ibn Ishaq. He found relief, so he went out and ascended the pulpit, and praised Allah and extolled Him, and asked forgiveness for the martyrs from among the companions of Uhud and supplicated for them. Then he said: "As for what follows, the Ansar are my refuge to which I have taken refuge. So, honor the honor among them, and overlook the wrongdoer among them, except in a specific case. Indeed, one of Allah's servants was given the choice between this world and what is with Allah, and he chose what is with Allah." Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه) wept, and he thought that he meant himself. The Prophet (صلى الله عليه) said, "Take it easy, O Abu Bakr. Block these doors of the streets leading to the mosque, except for door of Abu Bakr, for I do not know of a man who has a better hand in companionship than Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه)."

أَخْبَرَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ مَنْصُورٍ ، حَدَّثَنَا فُلَيْحُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ ، عَنْ الْقَاسِمِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ ، قَالَتْ : أَوْذَنَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالصَّلَاةِ فِي مَرَضِهِ ، فَقَالَ : " مُرُوا أَبَا بَكْرٍ يُصَلِّيَ بِالنَّاسِ " ، ثُمَّ أَعْمِيَ عَلَيْهِ ، فَلَمَّا سُرِّي عَنْهُ ، قَالَ : " هَلْ أَمَرْتُنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ يُصَلِّيَ بِالنَّاسِ ؟ " ، فَقُلْتُ : إِنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ رَجُلٌ رَفِيقٌ ، فَلَوْ أَمَرْتُ غَمَزَ ، فَقَالَ : " أَنْتُنَّ صَوَاحِبُ يُوسُفَ مُرُوا أَبَا بَكْرٍ يُصَلِّيَ بِالنَّاسِ ، قَرُبَ قَائِلٍ مُتَمَرٍّ وَيَأْبَى اللَّهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ "

Sa'id ibn Mansur informed us, Fulaih ibn Sulayman narrated to us, on the authority of Abd al-Rahman, on the authority of al-Qasim ibn Muhammad, on the authority of Ummul Momineen Aisha (رضى الله تعالى عنها), who said: the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) was called to prayer during his illness, and he said: "Tell Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه) to lead the people in prayer." Then he fainted, and when he recovered, he said: "Have you ordered Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه) to lead the people in prayer?" I said: Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه) is a gentle man, so why don't you order Umar (رضى الله تعالى عنه)? He said: "You are like the companions of Yusuf (عليه السلام). Tell Abu Bakr (رضى الله تعالى عنه) to lead the people in prayer. Many people say something wishful, but Allah and the believers refuse (to accept their talk).

Sulayman ibn Harb informed us, Hammad ibn Zayd told us, on the authority of Ayyub, on the authority of Ikrimah, who said: "The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) passed away on Monday. He was kept for the rest of the day and night and the next day until he was buried on Wednesday night. They said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) did not die, but his soul ascended just as the soul of Musa (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) ascended." Then Umar (رضي الله تعالى عنه) stood up and said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) did not die, but his soul ascended just as the soul of Musa (عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ) ascended. By Allah, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) will not die until he cuts off the hands and tongues of people. Umar (رضي الله تعالى عنه) continued speaking until his cheeks foamed from what he was threatening and saying. Then al-Abbas (رضي الله تعالى عنه) stood up and said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) and he (the Prophet) said, "He has died, and he is a human being. O my people, bury your companion, for he is more honorable to Allah than for Him to cause him to die twice. Can one of you die once and He causes him to die twice, and he is more honorable to Allah than that?" O my people, bury your companion, for if he is as you say, then it is not difficult for Allah to search for him in the dust. By Allah, the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) did not die until he had left behind a clear path. He made lawful what was lawful and made unlawful what was unlawful. He married and divorced, fought and made peace. No shepherd of sheep, whose owner used to follow them to the tops of mountains, beating the branches with his whip and watering their water tank with his hand, was more tireless or more diligent than the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم). He was among you, O people, so bury your companion. He said: Umm Ayman (رضي الله تعالى عنها) began to cry, and it was said to her: O Umm Ayman (رضي الله تعالى عنها), are you crying for the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم)? She said: By Allah, I am not crying for the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) because I don't know that he has gone to something better for him than this world, but I am crying because the news from heaven has ceased. Hammad said: "Ayyub was choked with tears when he reached here."

Abu Bakr al-Misri informed me, on the authority of Sulayman Abu Ayyub al-Khuza'i, on the authority of Yahya ibn Sa'id al-Umawi, on the authority of Ma'ruf ibn Kharbudh al-Makki, on the authority of Khalid ibn Ma'dan, who said: "Abdullah ibn al-Ahtham entered upon Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz with the common people, and Umar was not surprised until he was in front of him, speaking. He praised Allah and extolled..." Upon him, then he said: As for what follows, Allah created the creation without need of their obedience, safe from their disobedience. On that day, people will be in different ranks and opinions. The Arabs will be in the worst of those ranks: the people of the stone, the people of the hair, and the people of the back. The good things of this world and the comfort of its life will pass them by. They will not ask Allah as a group, nor will they recite to Him. A book, their dead are in the Fire, and their living are blind and unclean, along with countless things that are desired and disdained. But when Allah wanted to spread His mercy upon them, He sent to them a Apostle from among themselves. Grievous to him is your suffering, concerned over you and to the believers kind and merciful. May Allah's prayers and peace be upon him, and upon him be the mercy of Allah and His blessings. So, he did not. What prevented them from doing so was that they wounded him in his body and called him by his name, while he had with him a speaking book from Allah, which could only be carried out by His command and could not depart except with His permission. So, when he was ordered to decide and was urged to fight, his excretion was relieved by Allah's command. So, Allah made his argument successful, made his word permissible, made his call clear, and he departed from this world pious and pure. Then he rose up. After him came Abu Bakr (رضي الله تعالى عنه), who followed his Sunnah and took his path. The Arabs apostatized, or whoever among them did that, but he refused to accept anything from them after the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) except what was acceptable. He pulled the swords from their scabbards and lit fires in their flames. Then he afflicted the people of truth with the people of falsehood, and he did not cease to tear them apart and give water to their families. The earth was covered with their blood, until He brought them into the place from which they had left, and He made them reconcile with that from which they had fled. He had acquired from the wealth of Allah a young camel, from which he could drink, and an Abyssinian woman who had breastfed his son. He saw this at his death as a lump in his throat, and this led to the Caliph after him, and he departed this world pious and pure, following the path of his companion. Then Umar (رضي الله تعالى عنه) rose after him. He conquered all the cities, and mixed severity with leniency, and rolled up his sleeves, and rolled up his legs, and counted the matters and the tools of war. When the young man of al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah struck him, he ordered Ibn Abbas (رضي الله تعالى عنه) to ask the people: Do they prove his killer? When it was said: The young man of al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah, he began to praise his Lord that he had not been struck by him has a right to the spoils of war, and he argues against him by saying that he only made his blood permissible because he made his right permissible. He had acquired eighty-odd thousands of Allah's wealth, so he broke his quarters and was reluctant to support his children because of it. So, he gave it to the Caliph after him, and he departed from this world pious and pure, following the path of his two companions. Then, O Umar, you are a son of this world, and its kings gave birth to you. And she fed you her breasts, and it grew in her, seeking its places. But when you took charge of it, you threw it where Allah threw it. You abandoned it, neglected it, and defiled it, except for what you took from it. So, praise be to Allah, who removed our sin through you and relieved our distress through you. So go on and do not look back, for nothing is too strong for the truth, and nothing is humiliated by falsehood. I say my word. This, and I ask forgiveness of Allah for myself and for the believing men and women." Abu Ayyub said: "So Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz used to say about something: Ibn al-Aththam said to me: Go and do not look back."

حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو النُّعْمَانِ ، حَدَّثَنَا سَعِيدُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ ، حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ مَالِكٍ التُّكْرِيُّ ، حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو الْجَوَزَاءِ أَوْسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ ، قَالَ : " قَحَطَ أَهْلُ الْمَدِينَةِ قَحَطًا شَدِيدًا ، فَشَكُّوا إِلَى عَائِشَةَ ، فَقَالَتْ : انْظُرُوا قَبْرَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ، فَاجْعَلُوا مِنْهُ كُزُورًا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ حَتَّى لَا يَكُونَ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ سَفْفٌ ، قَالَ : فَفَعَلُوا ، فَمَطَرْنَا مَطَرًا حَتَّى نَبَتَ الْعُشْبُ ، وَسَمِنَتِ الْإِبِلُ حَتَّى تَفْتَقَتْ مِنَ الشَّحْمِ ، فَسَمِيَ عَامُ الْفَتْقِ "

Abu al-Nu'man narrated to us, Sa'id ibn Zayd narrated to us, 'Amr ibn Malik al-Nukri narrated to us, Abu al-Jawza' Aws ibn 'Abdullah narrated to us, saying: "The people of Medina were experiencing a severe drought, so they complained to Ummul Momineen Aishah (رضي الله تعالى عنها), and she said: 'Look at the tomb of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and make a window in it that faces the sky so that there is no space between it and the sky.'" And between the sky is a ceiling. He said: So, they did, and we were showered with rain until the grass grew, and the camels grew fat until they burst from the fat, so it was called the Year of the Burst.

أَخْبَرَنَا مَرْوَانُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ ، قَالَ : " لَمَّا كَانَ أَيَّامُ الْحَرَّةِ لَمْ يُؤَدَّنْ فِي مَسْجِدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثًا ، وَلَمْ يُقَمْ وَلَمْ يَبْرَحْ سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ الْمَسْجِدَ ، وَكَانَ لَا يَغْرِفُ وَقْتُ الصَّلَاةِ إِلَّا بِهَمْهَمَةٍ يَسْمَعُهَا مِنْ قَبْرِ النَّبِيِّ " ، فَذَكَرَ مَعْنَاهُ

Marwan ibn Muhammad informed us, on the authority of Sa'id ibn 'Abd al-'Aziz, who said: "When the days of al-Harrah came, the call to prayer was not made in the Prophet's (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) Mosque for three days, nor was the Iqama performed, and Sa'id ibn al-Musayyib did not leave the mosque. He did not know the time of prayer except by a murmur he heard from the Prophet's (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) grave." He then mentioned its meaning.

The above Hadith is not to be preserved as Sa'id was working for the Kings and all his statements about himself, Ahle Baith and Khulafa-e-Rashideen are doubtful.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ صَالِحٍ ، حَدَّثَنِي اللَّيْثُ ، حَدَّثَنِي خَالِدٌ هُوَ ابْنُ يَزِيدَ ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ هُوَ ابْنُ أَبِي هِلَالٍ ، عَنْ نُبَيْهِ بْنِ وَهْبٍ ، أَنَّ كَعْبًا دَخَلَ عَلَى عَائِشَةَ ، فَذَكَرُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ، فَقَالَ كَعْبٌ : " مَا مِنْ يَوْمٍ يَطْلُعُ إِلَّا نَزَلَ سَبْعُونَ أَلْفًا مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ ، حَتَّى يَحْفُوا بِقَبْرِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَضْرِبُونَ بِأَجْنِحَتِهِمْ ، وَيُصَلُّونَ عَلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتَّى إِذَا أُمْسَوْا ، عَرَجُوا وَهَبَطَ مِثْلُهُمْ ، فَصَنَعُوا مِثْلَ ذَلِكَ حَتَّى إِذَا انْشَقَّتْ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ ، خَرَجَ فِي سَبْعِينَ أَلْفًا مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ يَرْفُقُونَهُ "

Abdullah ibn Salih narrated to us, Al-Layth narrated to me, Khalid - he is Ibn Yazid - narrated to me, from Saeed - he is Ibn Abi Hilal - from Nubayh ibn Wahb, that Ka'b (رضي الله تعالى عنه) entered upon Ummul Momineen Aishah (رضي الله تعالى عنه), and they mentioned the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). Ka'b said: "There is not a day that dawns except that seventy thousand angels descend until they surround the grave of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). They would beat their wings and invoke blessings upon him until evening came, and a similar number would ascend and descend. They would do the same until the earth split open and he would emerge with seventy thousand angels escorting him.

أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو عَاصِمٍ ، أَخْبَرَنَا ثَوْرُ بْنُ يَزِيدَ ، حَدَّثَنِي خَالِدُ بْنُ مَعْدَانَ ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو ، عَنْ عَزْبِاضِ بْنِ سَارِيَةَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ ، قَالَ : صَلَّى لَنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَاةَ الْفَجْرِ ، ثُمَّ وَعَظَنَا مَوْعِظَةً بَلِيغَةً ذَرَفَتْ مِنْهَا الْعُيُونُ ، وَوَجَلَتْ مِنْهَا الْقُلُوبُ ، فَقَالَ قَائِلٌ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ، كَأَنَّهَا مَوْعِظَةٌ مُودِعٌ؟ فَأَوْصِنَا ، فَقَالَ : " أَوْصِيكُمْ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَالسَّمْعِ وَالطَّاعَةِ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَبْدًا حَبَشِيًّا ، فَإِنَّهُ مَنْ يَعِشْ مِنْكُمْ بَعْدِي فَسَيَرَى اخْتِلَافًا كَثِيرًا ، فَعَلَيْكُمْ بِسُنَّتِي وَسُنَّةِ الْخُلَفَاءِ الرَّاشِدِينَ الْمَهْدِيِّينَ ، غَضُّوا عَلَيْهَا بِالنَّوَاجِذِ وَإِيَّاكُمْ وَالْمُحَدَّثَاتِ ، فَإِنَّ كُلَّ مُحَدَّثَةٍ بَدْعَةٌ " ، وَقَالَ أَبُو عَاصِمٍ مَرَّةً : " وَإِيَّاكُمْ وَمُحَدَّثَاتِ الْأُمُورِ ، فَإِنَّ كُلَّ بَدْعَةٍ ضَلَالَةٌ "

Abu Asim informed us, Thawr ibn Yazid informed us, Khalid ibn Ma'dan informed me, on the authority of Abd al-Rahman ibn Amr, on the authority of Irbad ibn Sariyah (رضي الله تعالى عنه), who said: The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) led us in the dawn prayer, then he gave us a powerful sermon that made our eyes shed tears and our hearts fearful. Then someone said: O Apostle of Allah! Allah, is it a farewell sermon? So, he advised us, saying: "I advise you to fear Allah, and to listen and obey, even if he is an Abyssinian slave, for whoever among you lives after me will see much disagreement. So, adhere to my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the Rightly Guided Caliphs, and cling to it firmly. And beware of newly invented matters, for every newly invented matter is an innovation. Abu 'Asim said once: And beware of newly invented matters, for every innovation is misguidance.

أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو الْمُغِيرَةِ ، حَدَّثَنَا الْأَوْزَاعِيُّ ، عَنْ يُونُسَ بْنِ يَزِيدَ ، عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ ، قَالَ : كَانَ مَنْ مَضَى مِنْ عُلَمَائِنَا يَقُولُونَ : " الْاِعْتَصَامُ بِالسُّنَّةِ نَجَاةٌ ، وَالْعِلْمُ يُفْبِضُ قَبْضًا سَرِيعًا ، فَتَنْشُطُ الْعِلْمُ ثَبَاتُ الدِّينِ وَالْدُّنْيَا ، وَفِي ذَهَابِ الْعِلْمِ ذَهَابُ ذَلِكَ كُلِّهِ "

Abu Al-Mughira informed us, Al-Awza'i told us, on the authority of Yunus bin Yazid, on the authority of Al-Zuhri, who said: Those of our scholars who passed away used to say: "Adherence to the Sunnah is salvation, and knowledge is taken away quickly. The revival of knowledge is the stability of religion and the world, and in the loss of knowledge is the loss of all of that."

أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو الْمُغِيرَةِ ، حَدَّثَنَا الْأَوْزَاعِيُّ ، عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي عَمْرٍو السَّيْبَانِيِّ ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الدَّيْلَمِيِّ ، قَالَ : " بَلَغَنِي أَنَّ أَوَّلَ ذَهَابِ الدِّينِ تَرْكُ السُّنَّةِ ، يَذْهَبُ الدِّينُ سُنَّةً سُنَّةً ، كَمَا يَذْهَبُ الْحَبْلُ قُوَّةً قُوَّةً "

Abu Al-Mughira informed us, Al-Awza'i told us, on the authority of Yahya bin Abi Amr Al-Saybani, on the authority of Abdullah bin Al-Daylami, who said: "It has reached me that the first sign of the disappearance of religion is the abandonment of the Sunnah. The religion disappears one Sunnah after another, just as a rope disappears, strength after strength."

Abu Al-Mughira informed us, Al-Awza'i told us, on the authority of Hassan, who said: "No people innovate an innovation in their religion except that Allah removes something similar from their Sunnah, and then He does not return it to them until the Day of Resurrection."

Sulayman ibn Harb informed us, Hammad ibn Zayd told us, on the authority of Ayyub, on the authority of Abu Qilabah, who said: "The people of whims are the people of misguidance, and I do not see their fate except in the Fire. So, test them, for none of them invents a saying or he said: a hadith, and the matter is far from being decided by the sword. Indeed, hypocrisy is of various types." Then he recited: "And among them is he who made a covenant with Allah, if He gives us from His bounty, we will surely give charity and be among the righteous. Surah At-Tawbah, verse 75. And among them are those who criticize you concerning charities. If they are given from them, they are pleased; but if they are not given from them, at once they become angry. Surah At-Tawbah, verse 58. And among them are those who annoy the Prophet and say, "He is an ear." Say, "An ear of good for you." Surah At-Tawbah, verse 61. So, their statement differed, and they agreed. In doubt and denial, and these people differed in their statement and gathered in the sword, and I do not see their fate except to the Fire." Hammad said: Then Ayyub said regarding this hadith or regarding the first: And by Allah, he was among the wise jurists: meaning Abu Qilabah.

Muhammad ibn al-Salt informed us, Zuhayr told us, on the authority of Ja'far ibn Burqan, who told us, Maymun ibn Mihran said: Whenever a litigant came to Abu Bakr (رضي الله تعالى عنه) he would look into the Book of Allah. If he found in it something that would allow him to decide between them, he would judge according to it. But if there was nothing in the Book, he would learn from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) concerning that matter. A Sunnah, he ruled accordingly. If he was exhausted, he would go out and ask the Muslims, saying: Such and such came to me. Do you know that the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) ruled in this regard? Perhaps a group of people would gather around him, all of them mentioning a ruling from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) and Abu Bakr would say, "Praise be to Allah, who has placed among us someone who will preserve the Sunnah of our Prophet (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم)." If he was unable to find a Sunnah from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) he would gather the leaders and best of the people and consult them. When their opinion was unanimous, he would decide on a decision. An order that he has decreed Ibrahim ibn Musa and Amr ibn Zurara informed us, on the authority of Abd al-Aziz ibn Muhammad, on the authority of Abu Suhayl, who said: My wife was required to observe i'tikaf for three days in the Sacred Mosque. So I asked Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz, while Ibn Shihab was with him. He said: I said: She must be fast. Ibn Shihab said: There is no i'tikaf without fasting. So, he said to him: Umar ibn Abd al-Aziz said: "Is it from the Prophet (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم)?" He said: "No." He said: "And from Abu Bakr?" He said: "No." He said: "And from Umar?" He said: "No." He said: "And from Uthman?" He said: "No." Umar said: "I do not think she has to fast." So, I went out and found Tawus and Ata' ibn Abi Rabah, so I asked them. Tawus said: "Ibn Abbas (رضي الله تعالى عنه) did not think..." She is not required to fast unless she makes it her own." He said: And Ata' said: That is my opinion.

Do not issue fatwas based on your own opinion unless it is a Sunnah. On the authority of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) or a revealed book.

If something comes to him that is not in the Book of Allah, then let him rule according to what the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) ruled. If something comes to him that is not in the Book of Allah, and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) did not rule, then let him rule according to what the righteous ruled. And let him not say, "I fear," or "I see." For what is forbidden is clear, and what is lawful is clear, and between them are matters. Doubtful, so leave what makes you doubt for what does not make you doubt.

If something comes to you that is not in the Book of Allah, then look to the Sunnah of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and judge according to it. If something comes to you that is not in the Book of Allah, then look at the Sunnah of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and judge according to it. The Book of Allah, and there is no Sunnah of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) then look at what the people have agreed upon and accept it. If something comes to you that is not in the Book of Allah, and was not in the Sunnah of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and no one before you spoke about it, then choose whichever of the two matters you want: If you want to exert your own opinion and then move forward So go ahead, and if you want to stay behind, then stay behind, and I do not see that staying behind is anything but good for you."

أَسَوَاءُ أَدْنُكَ وَبِدُكَ؟ فَإِنَّ الْأَدْنَ يُوَارِيهَا الشَّعْرُ، وَالْكُمَةُ وَالْعِمَامَةُ فِيهَا نِصْفُ الدِّيَةِ، وَفِي الْيَدِ نِصْفُ الدِّيَةِ، وَبِحَاكٍ : إِنَّ السَّنَةَ سَبَقَتْ قِيَّاسَكُمْ فَاتَّبِعْ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ، فَإِنَّكَ لَنْ تَضِلَّ مَا أَخَذْتَ بِالْأَثَرِ، قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ : فَقَالَ لِي الشَّعْبِيُّ : يَا هَذَلِي، لَوْ أَنَّ أَحَنَفَكُمْ قُتِلَ وَهَذَا الصَّبِيُّ فِي مَهْدِهِ أَكَانَ دَيْنُهُمَا سَوَاءً؟، قُلْتُ : نَعَمْ، قَالَ : فَأَيْنَ الْقِيَّاسُ؟ "

Hajjaj al-Basri informed us, Abu Bakr al-Hudhali narrated to us, on the authority of al-Sha'bi, who said: "I witnessed Shurayh when a man from Murad came to him and said: 'O Abu Umayyah, what is the blood money for the fingers?' He said: 'Ten by ten.' He said: 'Glory be to Allah, are these two the same?' He combined the little finger and the thumb. Shurayh said: 'Glory be to Allah, are your ear and your hand the same?' For the ear is covered by hair, and the sleeve and turban are worth half of the blood money, and the hand is worth half of the blood money. Woe to you! The Sunnah preceded your analogy, so follow it and do not innovate, for you will not go astray as long as you adhere to the tradition. Abu Bakr said: Al-Sha'bi said to me: O Hudhaili, if your Ahnaf had been killed while this child was in his cradle, would their blood money be equal to the amount of the blood money? Equally? I said: Yes. He said: "Then where is the analogy?"

A man will say, 'I read the Qur'an, but I was not followed. By Allah, I will stand up to teach it among them so that I may be followed.' Then he will stand up to teach it among them, but it will not be followed. Then he will say: I recited the Qur'an but was not followed, and I led it among them but was not followed. I will certainly prepare a mosque in my house so that I may be followed. Then he prepares a mosque in his house but is not followed, so he says: I recited the Qur'an but was not followed, and I led it among them but was not followed, and I prepared a mosque in my house but was not followed. By Allah, I will bring them a hadith that they will not find in the Book of Allah, and they did not hear it from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم), so that I might be followed. Muadh said: "Then beware of what he brought, for what he brought is misguidance."

Al-Hakam ibn al-Mubarak informed us, Amr ibn Yahya informed us, he said: I heard my father narrating, on the authority of his father, he said: We used to sit at the door of Abdullah ibn Mas'ud (رضي الله تعالى عنه) before the dawn prayer, and when he came out, we would walk with him to the mosque. Then Abu Musa al-Ash'ari (رضي الله تعالى عنه) came to us and said: Abu Abdur-Rahman after that? We said: No. So, he sat with us until he left. When he left, we all stood up to him. Abu Musa said to him: O Abu Abdur-Rahman, I saw in the mosque just now something that I disapproved of, but I did not see, praise be to Allah, except good. He said: What was it? He said: If you live, you will see it. He said: I saw in the mosque some people sitting in circles. They wait for the prayer, and in each circle, there is a man, and in their hands are pebbles. He says: "Glorify Allah" one hundred times, and they say "Allah is great" one hundred times. He says: "Praise Allah" one hundred times, and they say "There is no God but Allah" one hundred times. He says: "Glorify Allah" one hundred times, and they say "Glorify Allah" one hundred times. He said: "What did you say to them?" He said: "I did not say anything to them, waiting for your opinion or your command." He said: "Why didn't you order them to count?" Their bad deeds, and you guaranteed them that none of their good deeds would be lost? Then he went on, and we went with him until he came to one of those circles. He stopped among them and said, "What is this that I see you doing?" They said, "O Abu Abd al-Rahman, pebbles with which we count our takbir, tahlil, and tasbih." He said, "Then count your bad deeds, for I guarantee that none of your good deeds will be lost. Woe to you, O nation of Muhammad! How swiftly you will perish!" These are the Companions of your Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) in abundance. These are his clothes that have not worn out, and his utensils that have not been broken. By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, you are either on a religion that is more guided than the religion of Muhammad, or you are opening the door to misguidance." They said: "By Allah, O Abu Abd al-Rahman, we only wanted good." He said: "And how many a person wants good but will never attain it? Indeed, The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) told us that there are people who recite the Qur'an, but it does not go beyond their collarbones. By Allah, I do not know, perhaps most of them are from among you. Then he turned away from them, and Amr ibn Salamah said: We saw most of those circles fighting us on the Day of Nahrawan along with the Khawarij.

May Allah have mercy on whoever heard my words today and understood them. Many a person carries knowledge but does not have knowledge of it, and many a person carries knowledge to someone who is more knowledgeable than him. Know that your wealth and your blood are sacred to you, just as sacred as this day, in this month, in this country. Know that Hearts do not deprive oneself of three things: sincerity in one's actions for the sake of Allah, giving sincere advice to those in authority, and adherence to the Muslim community, for their supplication encompasses them from behind them.

Ismah ibn al-Fadl informed us, Harami ibn Umarah told us, on the authority of Shu'bah, on the authority of Umar ibn Sulayman, on the authority of Abd al-Rahman ibn Aban ibn Uthman, on the authority of his father, who said: Zayd ibn Thabit left Marwan ibn al-Hakam at noon. He said: I said, "He did not leave Marwan at this hour except that he had asked him about something." So I came to him and asked him, and he said: Yes, he asked me about a hadith that I heard from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). He said: "May Allah make radiant the face of a man who hears a hadith from us, memorizes it, and conveys it to someone who has memorized it better than him. Many a bearer of knowledge is not a scholar, and many a bearer of knowledge conveys it to someone who has more knowledge than him. The heart of a Muslim does not believe in three things except that he will enter Paradise: He said: I said: What are they? He said: Sincerity in action for the sake of Allah, sincere advice to those in authority, and adherence to the community, for their supplication encompasses them from behind them. Whoever's intention is the Hereafter, Allah will make his richness in his heart, and gather his affairs for him, and the world will come to him reluctantly. Whoever's intention is the world, Allah will scatter his affairs and make his poverty between them. His eyes, and nothing came to him from this world except what was decreed for him." He said: "And I asked him about the middle prayer. He said: It is the noon prayer."

Which of them was better? The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) said: "The superiority of this scholar who prays the prescribed prayers and then sits and teaches people goodness over the worshipper who fasts during the day and stands in prayer at night is like my superiority over the lowest of you in rank."

According to a hadith that reached me from the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) he said: "What brought you here, trade?" He said: "No." He said: "And nothing else brought you here?" He said: "No." He said: "I heard the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) say: 'Whoever takes a path in search of knowledge, Allah will make easy for him a path to Paradise. The angels spread their wings in pleasure for the seeker of knowledge. ' Knowledge, and the seeker of knowledge, everyone in the heavens and the earth, even the fish in the water, seeks forgiveness for him. The superiority of the scholar over the worshipper is like the superiority of the moon over the rest of the stars. The scholars are the inheritors of the prophets. The prophets did not leave behind dinars or dirhams, but they left behind knowledge. So whoever takes it, takes his portion, or a portion. Abundant Sa'd ibn Amir informed us, on the authority of Hisham, the companion of al-Dastawa'i, who said: I read in a book that reached me that it was from the words of Jesus, peace be upon him: "You work for this world, and you are provided for in it without working, and you do not work for the Hereafter, and you are not provided for in it except through working. Woe to you, scholars of evil: you take the reward, but you waste the work. The Lord of deeds is about to demand his deeds, and you are about to leave this vast world for the darkness and narrowness of the grave. Allah forbids you from sins, just as He has commanded you to pray and fast. How can one be among the people of knowledge who is dissatisfied with his provision and despises his status, knowing that this is from Allah's knowledge and power? How can one be among the people of knowledge who He accuses Allah of what He has decreed for him, yet is not satisfied with anything that befalls him. How can a person be among the people of knowledge if he prefers his worldly life to his Hereafter, while he has the best desire for this world? How can a person be among the people of knowledge if his destiny is his Hereafter, while he is focused on his worldly life, and what harms him is more desirable to him—or he could say, more beloved to him—than what benefits him? How can someone be a person of knowledge who seeks knowledge in order to convey it, but does not seek it in order to act upon it?

And out of a desire for ignorance, O my son, choose the gatherings that suit you, and if you see people remembering Allah, then sit with them, for if you are knowledgeable, your knowledge will benefit you, and if you are ignorant, they will teach you, and perhaps Allah will look upon them with His mercy and make you suffer with it along with them. And if you see people who do not remember Allah, then do not sit with them. If you are knowledgeable, your knowledge will not benefit you, and if you are ignorant, they will increase your ignorance. Perhaps Allah will bring down a punishment upon them and afflict you with them."

Their private life is their public life. They sit in circles and boast to one another, to the point that a man becomes angry with his companion for sitting with someone other than him and leaves him. And whoever disobeys Allah and His Apostle has certainly strayed into clear error. Surah Al-Ahzab, verse 36. Sufyan said: “It is taken as a ladder. He says: He prays after the afternoon prayer until the night.”

أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْعَلَاءِ ، حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ ، عَنْ مُجَالِيدٍ ، عَنْ عَامِرٍ ، عَنْ جَابِرِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ ، أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ الْخَطَّابِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ أَتَى رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِنُسْخَةٍ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ ، فَقَالَ : يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ، هَذِهِ نُسْخَةٌ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ ، فَسَكَتَ ، فَجَعَلَ يَقْرَأُ وَجْهَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ يَتَغَيَّرُ ، فَقَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ : تَكَلَّمَكَ التَّوَاكُلُ ، مَا تَرَى مَا بَوَّجَهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؟ فَتَنَظَرَ عُمَرُ إِلَى وَجْهِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ، فَقَالَ : أَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ غَضَبِ اللَّهِ ، وَمِنْ غَضَبِ رَسُولِهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ، رَضِينَا بِاللَّهِ رَبًّا ، وَبِالْإِسْلَامِ دِينًا ، وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا ، فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ : " وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ ، لَوْ بَدَأَ لَكُمْ مُوسَى فَاتَّبَعْتُمُوهُ وَتَرَكْتُمُونِي ، لَضَلَلْتُمْ عَنْ سَوَاءِ السَّبِيلِ ، وَلَوْ كَانَ حَيًّا وَأَدْرَكَ نُبُوتِي لَا تَتَّبَعَنِي "

Muhammad ibn al-Ala' informed us, Ibn Numayr told us, on the authority of Mujalid, on the authority of Aamir, on the authority of Jabir (رضي الله تعالى عنه) that Umar ibn al-Khattab (رضي الله عنه) came to the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) with a copy of the Torah and said: O Apostle of Allah, this is a copy of the Torah. He remained silent, then he began to read and the face of the Apostle of Allah changed, so he said: Abu Bakr, may Allah have mercy on him: May the widows be bereaved of you! What do you see on the face of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم)? Umar looked at the face of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) and said: I seek refuge in Allah from the wrath of Allah and from the wrath of His Apostle (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم). We are satisfied with Allah as our Lord, with Islam as our religion, and with Muhammad as our Prophet. The Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم) said: “By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, if Moses appeared to you and you followed him, and if you had abandoned me, you would have strayed from the right path. Had he been alive and known of my prophethood, he would have followed me.”

Suddenly, a man was in its mosque saying: "Indeed, among the signs of the Hour is that the wicked will be removed and the weak will be placed..." The best, beware, among the signs of the Hour is that the word will be made apparent, and the action will be stored. Beware, among the signs of the Hour is that the Mathnat will be recited, and there will be no one to change it. It was said to him: What is the Mathnat? He said: What was written in a book other than the Qur'an. So stick to the Qur'an, for by it you are guided, by it you will be rewarded, and about it you will be asked. I did not know who the man was. Then I narrated this hadith after that in Homs, and a man from the people said to me: Do you not know him? I said: No. He said: That is Abdullah ibn Amr, may Allah be pleased with them both.

أَخْبَرَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ، حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْكُمَيْتِ ، حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ وَهَبٍ الْهَمْدَانِيُّ ، حَدَّثَنَا الضَّحَّاكُ بْنُ مُوسَى ، قَالَ : " مَرَّ سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بِالْمَدِينَةِ وَهُوَ يُرِيدُ مَكَّةَ ، فَأَقَامَ بِهَا أَيَّامًا ، فَقَالَ : هَلْ بِالْمَدِينَةِ أَحَدٌ أَذْرَكَ أَحَدًا مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؟ فَقَالُوا لَهُ : أَبُو حازِمٍ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ، فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَيْهِ ، فَلَمَّا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ ، قَالَ لَهُ : يَا أَبَا حازِمٍ ، مَا هَذَا الْجَفَاءُ؟ قَالَ أَبُو حازِمٍ : يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ، وَأَيُّ جَفَاءٍ رَأَيْتَ مِنِّي؟ قَالَ : أَتَانِي وَجْهُ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ وَلَمْ تَأْتِنِي ، قَالَ : يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ، أُعِيدُكَ بِاللَّهِ أَنْ تَقُولَ مَا لَمْ يَكُنْ ، مَا عَرَفْتَنِي قَبْلَ هَذَا الْيَوْمِ ، وَلَا أَنَا رَأَيْتُكَ ، قَالَ : فَالْتَقَيْتَ سُلَيْمَانُ إِلَى مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ شِهَابِ الزُّهْرِيِّ ، فَقَالَ أَصَابَ الشَّيْخُ : وَأَخْطَأْتُ ، قَالَ سُلَيْمَانُ : يَا أَبَا حازِمٍ ، مَا لَنَا نَكْرَهُ الْمَوْتَ؟ قَالَ : لِأَنَّكُمْ أَخْرَيْتُمُ الْأَجْرَةَ ، وَعَمَّرْتُمُ الدُّنْيَا ، فَكْرَهْتُمْ أَنْ تَنْتَقِلُوا مِنَ الْعُمْرَانِ إِلَى الْخَرَابِ ، قَالَ : أَصَبْتَ يَا أَبَا حازِمٍ ، فَكَيْفَ الْقُدُومُ غَدًا عَلَى اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ : أَمَّا الْمُحْسِنُ ، فَكَالْعَائِبِ يَقْدُمُ عَلَى أَهْلِهِ ، وَأَمَّا الْمُسِيءُ ، فَكَالْبَاقِي يَقْدُمُ عَلَى مَوْلَاهُ ، فَبَكَى سُلَيْمَانُ ، وَقَالَ : لَبِيتُ شِعْرِي مَا لَنَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ : اعْرِضْ عَمَلَكَ عَلَى كِتَابِ اللَّهِ ، قَالَ : وَأَيُّ مَكَانٍ أَجِدُهُ؟ قَالَ : # Yaqub ibn Ibrahim informed us, Muhammad ibn Umar ibn al-Kumait informed us, Ali ibn Wahb al-Hamdani informed us, Ad-Dahhak ibn Musa informed us, saying: "Sulayman ibn Abd al-Malik passed by Madinah on his way to Makkah, and he stayed there for a few days. He then said: 'Is there anyone in Madinah who met any of the Companions of the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وآله وسلم)?' They said to him: Abu Hazim, O Commander of the Faithful. So, he sent for him. When he entered upon him, he said to him: O Abu Hazim, what is this rudeness? Abu Hazim said: O Commander of the Faithful, what rudeness did you see from me? He said: The notables of the people of Medina came to me, and you did not come to me. He said: O Commander of the Faithful, I seek refuge for you in Allah that you say what did not happen, what You knew me before this day, and I have not seen you. He said: So, Sulayman turned to Muhammad ibn Shihab al-Zuhri and said: The old man was right, and I was wrong. Sulayman said: O Abu Hazim, why do we hate death? He said: Because you have ruined the Hereafter and built up the world, so you hate to move from prosperity to ruin. He said: You are right, Abu Hazim! How will we approach Allah tomorrow? He said: As for the good-doer, he is like the absent one approaching his family, and as for the evil-doer, he is like the fugitive approaching his master. So, Sulayman wept and said: Would that I knew what we have with Allah. He said: Compare your deeds to the Book of Allah. He said: And what place will I find? He said: # Indeed, the righteous will be in pleasure {13} And indeed, the wicked will be in Hellfire. {14} Surah Al-Infitar, verses 13-14 #, Solomon said: So where is the mercy of Allah, O Abu Hazim? Abu Hazim said: The mercy of Allah is close to the doers of good. Solomon said to him: O Abu Hazim, which of Allah's servants is the most honored? He said: Those of chivalry and understanding. Solomon said to him: O Abu Hazim, which deeds are best? Abu Hazim said: Performing the obligatory duties while avoiding the forbidden. Sulayman said: Which supplication is most heard? Abu Hazim said: The application of the one who is benevolent to him for the one who is benevolent. He said: Which charity is best? He said: For the needy beggar, and the effort of the poor, in which there is no favor or harm. He said: Which statement is most just? He said: The statement of the truth according to the one who You fear Him or hope for Him. He said: Which of the believers is the most intelligent? He said: A man who acts in obedience to Allah and guides people to it. He said: Which of the believers is the most foolish? He said: A man who deviates from the path of his brother while being unjust, so he sells his afterlife for the worldly life of someone else. Sulayman said to him: You are right. What do you say about what we are in? He said: O Commander of the Faithful, or Will you excuse me? Solomon said to him: No, but give me some advice. He said: O Commander of the Faithful, your fathers subjugated the people with the sword and took this kingdom by force without consulting the Muslims or their consent, until they killed a great number of them. They have now departed from it. If you were informed of what they said and what was said to them? So he said to him: A man from among his companions said: What a bad thing you have said, O Abu Hazim. Abu Hazim said: You have lied. Indeed, Allah has taken a covenant from the scholars that they will make it clear to the people and not conceal it. Sulayman said to him: Then how can we reform? He said: You abandon arrogance, hold fast to chivalry, and distribute equally. Sulayman said to him: How can we do what is taken from us? Abu Hazim said: :You take it from its rightful place and place it among its people. Sulayman said to him: Would you like, Abu Hazim, to accompany us so that you may take from us and we may take from you? He said: I seek refuge in Allah. Solomon said to him: Why is that? He said: I fear that if I rely on you a little, Allah will make me taste double in life and double in death. Solomon said to him: Submit your needs to us. He said: Save me from the Fire and admit me to Paradise. Solomon said: That is not up to me. Abu Hazim said: I have no other need of you. He said: Sulayman said to him: Why is that? He said: I fear that if I rely on you a little, Allah will make me taste double in life and double in death. Sulayman said to him: Submit your needs to us. He said: Save me from the Fire and admit me to Paradise. Sulayman said: That is not up to me. Abu Hazim said: Then I have no other need of you. He said: Then pray for me. Abu Hazim said: O Allah, if Solomon is Your friend, then make his path easy for the good of this world and the Hereafter. And if he is Your enemy, then take him by the forelock to what You love and are pleased with. Solomon said to him: Never. Abu Hazim said: I have been brief and at length if you are one of his people. But if you are not one of his people, then what benefit will it bring me to shoot from a bow that has no string? Solomon said to him: Advise me. He said: I will advise you and I will be brief: Magnify your Lord and keep Him far above seeing you where He has forbidden you or missing you where He has commanded you. So when he left him, he sent him one hundred dinars and wrote to him: Spend it and I have many more like it for you. He said: So, he returned it to him and wrote to him: O Commander of the Faithful, I seek refuge for you in Allah that your asking of me be in jest, or I will return to you with an offering that pleases you, but how can I please myself with it? And he wrote to him: When Moses, son of Imran, came to the water of Midian, he found shepherds there watering their flocks, and he found two young women behind them driving them back. So he asked them, and they said: # We will not water [their flocks] until the shepherds depart, and our father is an old man. {23} So he watered their flocks for them, then he turned away to the shade and said, "My Lord, indeed I, for whatever good You send down to me, am in need." {24} Surah Al-Qasas, verses 23-24 # This is because he was hungry, afraid, and not secure. So he asked his Lord and did not ask people. The shepherds did not realize this, but the two slave girls did. When they returned to their father, they told him the story and what he had said. Their father, who was Shu'ayb, said, "This is a hungry man." So he said to one of them, "Go and call him." When she came to him, she honored him and covered her face. And she said: "Indeed, my father invites you that he may reward you for having watered our flocks." Surah Al-Qasas, Verse 25. But it was hard for Moses when she mentioned: "The reward for having watered our flocks." And he had no choice but to follow her, for he was among the mountains, hungry and lonely. So when he followed her, the wind blew and she began to flap her clothes on her back, describing her buttocks to him, and she had a buttock. And Moses made He would turn away at one time and lower his gaze at another. When his patience ran out, he called out to her, "O servant of Allah, stand behind me and show me the way you are by saying this." When he entered upon Shu'ayb, he saw dinner being prepared. Shu'ayb said to him, "Sit down, young man, and eat your dinner." Moses said to him, "I seek refuge in Allah." Shu'ayb said to him, "Why?" Are you not hungry? He said: Yes, but I fear that this is compensation for what I watered for them. We are from a family that does not sell anything of our religion for the earth full of gold. Shu'ayb said to him: No, young man, but it is my custom and the custom of my fathers to welcome the guest and feed the food. So Moses sat down and ate. If these hundred dinars are a compensation for what I have narrated that dead animals, blood, and pork are permissible in cases of necessity, and if I have a right to it from the public treasury, then I have counterparts in it, so if you treat us equally, then fine, otherwise I have no need for it.

Abu Uthman al-Basri informed us, on the authority of Abd al-Aziz ibn Muslim al-Qasmali, who informed us that Zayd al-Amami informed us, on the authority of some of the jurists, that he said: "O man of knowledge, act upon your knowledge, give the excess of your wealth, and withhold the excess of your speech, except for something from the hadith that will benefit you with your Lord. O man of knowledge, that which you have learned and then..." If you do not act upon it, it will cut off your argument and excuse before your Lord when you meet Him. O man of knowledge, what you have been commanded to do of obeying Allah will distract you from what you have been forbidden of disobeying Allah. O man of knowledge do not be strong in the work of others and weak in your own work. O man of knowledge do not let what is for others distract you from what is for you. O man of knowledge. Knowledge, sit with scholars, compete with them, listen to them, and leave disputing with them, O man of knowledge, esteem scholars for their knowledge, and belittle the ignorant for their ignorance, and do not distance yourself from them, but bring them close and teach them, O man of knowledge, do not speak in a gathering until you understand it, and do not respond to a man's statement until you know what he said to you, O man of knowledge, do not be deceived by Allah, nor by people, for to be deceived by Allah is to abandon His command, and to be deceived by people is to follow their desires. Beware of Allah for what He has warned you about Himself, and beware of people and their temptations, O man of knowledge. Indeed, the light of the day is not complete except with the sun, and likewise, wisdom is not complete except with obedience to O man of knowledge, verily, plants are not good without water and soil. Likewise, faith is not good without knowledge and action. O man of knowledge, every traveler has provisions, and when he needs provisions, he will find what he has taken. Likewise, every worker, when he needs his work in the Hereafter, will find what he did in this world. O man of knowledge, If Allah wants to urge you to worship Him, then know that He only wants to show you your honor in His sight. So do not turn to someone other than Him, lest you return from His honor to His humiliation. O man of knowledge, if you move stones and iron, it is easier for you than to speak to someone who does not understand your speech. The example of the one who speaks to someone who does not understand his speech is like the example of the one who calls out The dead and sets the table for the people of the graves

Abdul Malik bin Sulayman Abu Abdul Rahman Al-Antaki informed us, on the authority of Abbad bin Abbad Al-Khawwas Al-Shami Abu Utbah, who said: "As for what follows, be rational, for reason is a blessing. Many a rational person's heart has been preoccupied with thinking deeply about what is harmful to him, from benefiting from what he needs, until he has become heedless of that. Among the bounty of A person's intellect is to refrain from looking into that which is not worth looking into, so that his superior intellect does not become a burden upon him in not competing with those who are below him in righteous deeds. Or a man whose heart is preoccupied with an innovation in which he imitates in his religion men who are below the Companions of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) or he is content with his opinion in that which he sees as the only guidance in it and does not see as misguidance. Except by abandoning it. He claims that he took it from the Qur'an, while he is calling for separation from the Qur'an. Was there not bearers of the Qur'an before him and before his companions who acted upon its clear verses and believed in its ambiguous verses? And they were from him on a beacon of clarity of the path, and the Qur'an was the imam of the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) and the Apostle of Allah (صلى الله عليه و آله وسلم) was the imam of his companions, and his companions were imams for those who came after them, men who were well-known and well-known in the countries, and who agreed in refuting the people of whims despite the differences that existed between them, and the companions of Their whims, in their opinion, led them on various paths that deviated from the straight path, and departed from it. Their guides led them astray into misleading matters, and they persisted in them, being arbitrary in their delusion. Whenever Satan brought them an innovation in their misguidance, they moved from it to another, because they did not seek the traces of the predecessors, and they did not They follow the example of the Muhajireen. It was reported on the authority of Omar that he said to Ziyad: Do you know what destroys Islam? A scholar's slip, a hypocrite's argument with the Qur'an, and misguided imams. Fear Allah and what has happened among your reciters and the people of your mosques of backbiting, gossiping, and walking among people with two faces and two tongues. It has been mentioned that whoever is two-faced in this world will be two-faced in Hellfire. The one who backbites you will meet you and backbite someone in your presence whom he thinks you love. His presence with the one who is present is like the presence of brothers, and his absence from the one from whom he is absent is like the absence of enemies. Whoever is present among them has the advantage, and whoever is absent among them has no advantage. A sanctity, he tempts those who are present with praise and backbites those who are absent from him. O servants of Allah, is there not among the people a wise person or a reformer who can restrain this man from his plot and prevent him from slandering his Muslim brother? Rather, he knew their desires in what he walked with to them, so he was able to control them and they were able to control him in his need, so he ate his religion along with their religions. So, by Allah, by Allah, defend the sanctity of your absent ones, and hold your tongues from them except for good, and advise Allah regarding your nation, since you are the bearers of the Book and the Sunnah, for the Book does not speak until it speaks. By it, and the Sunnah is not implemented until it is implemented, so when will the ignorant learn if the scholar remains silent, and does not denounce what is apparent, and does not command what is abandoned? And Allah has taken a covenant from those who were given the Scripture: "You shall make it clear to the people and not conceal it." Fear Allah, for you are living in a time in which piety has become weak, humility has become scarce, and knowledge has been carried by its corruptors. They love to be known for carrying it and hate to be known for wasting it. So, they speak therein according to their own desires, because they have introduced errors into it and distorted the words from what they intended. They abandoned the truth and adopted falsehood. Their sins are sins for which no forgiveness is sought, and their shortcomings are shortcomings for which no one acknowledges. How can the one seeking evidence and guidance find his way if the evidence is confusing? They loved the world and hated the status of its people, so they shared their lives, and separated themselves from them in speech, and defended themselves with speech from being attributed to their deeds. They did not disavow what they denied, and they did not enter into what they attributed to themselves, because the one who acts according to the truth is speaking, even if he is silent. It has been mentioned that Allah Almighty says: I do not accept all the words of the wise, but I look at his concern and his desires. If his concern and his desire are for Me, I make his silence praise and reverence for Me, even if he does not speak. Allah the Most High said: "The example of those who were entrusted with the Torah and then did not take it on is like that of a donkey who carries volumes." Surah Al-Jumu'ah, verse 5: "Books." And he said: "Take what We have given you with strength." Surah Al-Baqarah, verse 63: He said: Acting according to what is in it, and do not be satisfied with the Sunnah by attributing it in words without acting upon it, because attributing the Sunnah without acting upon it is lying in words while neglecting the action. And do not criticize innovations by adorning themselves with their defects, because the corruption of the people of innovations does not add to your righteousness. And do not criticize them out of transgression against their people, because transgression is from the corruption of your souls. It is not appropriate for a doctor to treat the sick with what cures them and makes him sick, because when he becomes sick, he will be preoccupied with his illness and not with treating them. Rather, he should seek health for himself so that he will be able to treat the sick. So let your matter in what you disapprove of your brothers be a consideration from you for yourselves and sincere advice from you. For your Lord, and out of compassion for your brothers, and that you be more concerned with your own faults than you are with the faults of others, and that some of you should wean one another with sincere advice, and that whoever offers it to you and accepts it from you should be appreciated by you. Umar ibn al-Khattab (رضي الله تعالى عنه) said: "May Allah have mercy on whoever points out my faults to me." You love to say: So, it is possible for you, and if you were told the same as what you said, you would become angry. You find fault with people in the things you disapprove of, and you do the same. Do you not love for it to be taken against you? Question your own opinion and the opinion of the people of your time, and verify before you speak, and learn before you act. For there will come a time when truth and falsehood will be confused, and good will be evil, and evil will be good. How many people seek to draw near to Allah through doing things that distance them from Him, and how many seek to be beloved to Him through doing things that anger Him? Allah the Most High said: Is he who has had his evil deeds made attractive to him so that he sees them as good? Surah Fatir, verse 8 # So you must stop at doubts until the truth is clearly presented to you with clear evidence, for indeed, he who enters into that which he does not know without knowledge is a sinner. And whoever looks to Allah, Allah will look to him. Stick to the Qur'an, complete it, and lead people in prayer with it, and you must seek the traces of those who came before in it, even if the rabbis The monks did not fear the loss of their ranks and the corruption of their status by establishing the Book through their actions and clarifying what they distorted or concealed. But when they contradicted the Book through their actions, they sought to deceive their people about what they had done, fearing that their ranks would be corrupted and that their corruption would become clear to the people. So, they distorted the Book through interpretation and what they did not. They could distort it, so they concealed it. They kept silent about what they did to preserve their status, and they kept silent about what their people did to please them. And Allah took a covenant from those who were given the Scripture: "You shall make it clear to the people and not conceal it." Rather, they agreed on it and were gentle with them regarding it.
